KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Brian Dickinson is a renowned keynote speaker, bestselling author, and extreme adventurer, known for his unparalleled resilience and leadership under pressure. A former U.S. Navy Aviation Rescue Swimmer, Brian is most famous for his solo summit of Mount Everest, where he went completely snow-blind in the Death Zone and had to descend blind and alone—a story hailed as one of the greatest survival feats of all time.

Through powerful storytelling and firsthand footage, Brian takes audiences on an edge-of-your-seat journey, delivering transformational insights on leadership, mental toughness, overcoming adversity, and decision-making in high-stakes situations. His message resonates with corporate teams, military personnel, first responders, athletes, and high performers seeking to push beyond limits and develop an unbreakable mindset.

Brian has inspired audiences worldwide and has been featured on CNN, Good Morning America, Fox News, NBC, Success Magazine, and as an honored listee in Marquis Who's Who. Whether speaking to Fortune 500 companies, elite military teams, or leadership conferences, Brian leaves audiences empowered to face challenges head-on, embrace resilience, and find strength in the face of the impossible.

BESTSELLING AUTHOR

A rogue Russian submarine. A buried Cold War vendetta. A hunted American aircrew. Bloodline of Redemption is a pulse-pounding military thriller that spans covert naval ops and mountain survival in a race to stop a nuclear strike on U.S. soil.

Blind Descent: Surviving Alone and Blind on Mount Everest. In Blind Descent, Brian recounts his extraordinary experience on Mount Everest, demonstrating that no matter how dire our circumstances, there is no challenge too big for God.

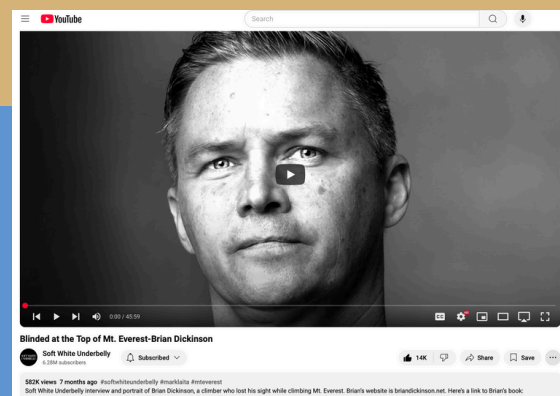

Calm in the Chaos: True Tales from Elite U.S. Navy Aviation Rescue Swimmers. In Calm in the Chaos, Brian dives deep into his military training to uncover what enables him—and others like him—to remain calm in death-defying situations.
